

Oxford Dysfluency Conference 2008, Saturday 5th July

Bernard Sunley Theatre

Time
8.45	Chair: Sharon Millard Paul Dolan, Imperial College Stuttering into Happiness
9.45	Ann Smith, Purdue University New Windows on the Onset of Stuttering in Young Children
10.30	Coffee
11.00	Chair: Rosalee Shenker Hans Månsson, University College Copenhagen Early Childhood Stuttering: A Systematic Framework of Predictive Factors for Persistence and Recovery
11.20	Cheryl Andrews, Mark Onslow, Sue O'Brian, Ann Packman & Ross Menzies, Australian Stuttering Research Centre The Limits of Rehabilitation of School Age Children Who Stutter
11.40	Jane Fry, Willie Botterill, The Michael Palin Centre for Stammering Children & Tim Pring, City University, London An investigation into the effectiveness of an intensive group therapy programme for teenagers who stutter
12.00	Panel
12.30	Posters M. Santosh, B. Rajshekar, & K. Anjali, Manipal University, India Efficacy of non-programmed prolonged speech therapy in persons with stuttering: Effect of age at the time of treatment Miglena Simonska, South-West University, Bulgaria Speech rate in stuttered and normal disfluent children in preschool-age Naomi Sakai, Mejiro University, Japan Brain activation in adults who stutter under delayed auditory feedback: a fMRI study Gerald A. Maguire, University of California, Irvine Medical Center Pagoclone, A Novel Nonbenzodiazepine, GABA-A Partial Agonist, Reduces Objective and subjective symptoms of stuttering

Oxford Dysfluency Conference 2008, Saturday 5th July

1.00	Lunch
Room	Bernard Sunley Theatre	B S Room B	B S Room A
2.00	Chair: Willie Botterill Natasha Trajkovski, Cheryl Andrews & Mark Onslow, Australian Stuttering Research Centre, The University of Sydney The Westmead Program of early stuttering intervention	Chair: David Ward Yvonne vanZaalen, Fontys University of Applied Sciences Differential diagnostic characteristics between cluttering and stuttering	Chair: Melanie Wade Elaine Kelman & Alison Nicholas, The Michael Palin Centre for Stammering Children Palin PCI: core skills in developing the parent-therapist relationship
2.25	Tammy Davidson Thompson, University of East Anglia (Dominic Barker Trust Studentship) Is current speech and language therapy practice meeting the psychosocial needs of adults who stutter?	Yvonne vanZaalen, Fontys University of Applied Sciences Language disturbances in children who clutter or experience learning disabilities
2.50	Trudy Stewart, Leeds PCT/ Speech & Language Therapy, St James Hospital Avoidance in adults who stammer: a clinical discussion	David Daly, Daly's Speech & Language Center Strategies for Identifying and Working with Difficult-To-Treat Cluttering Clients
3.15	Monica Bray & Sarah James, Leeds Metropolitan University An investigation into the effectiveness of a telephone assistive device for people who stammer
3.40	Jonathon Linklater & Duana Quigley, Dublin Adult Stuttering, Speech and Language Therapy Services Dublin Adult Stuttering: a three year review of an intensive residential course for adults who stammer

Oxford Dysfluency Conference 2008, Saturday 5th July

4.00	Tea
4.30	Chair: Anne Ayre Bracha Ophir, Kaplan Hospital, Israel Seeing things for what they are, no more and no less: The Buddhist Philosophy	Chair: Ann Packman Ronny Boey, Centrum voor Stottertherapie & University of Antwerp Onset of stuttering: related variables	Chair: Suzana Jelčić Jakšić Mark Irwin, International Stuttering Association Clarification of Stuttering Terminology - interactive workshop
4.55	Tom Weidig, QuantExperts, Luxembourg A new paradigm for a causal theory of stuttering: Two phases - Two theories	Sheena Reilly, Mark Onslow, Ann Packman, Melissa Wake, Edith Bavin, Margot Prior, Obioha Ukoumunne, Patricia Eadie, Catherine Bolzonello & Eileen Cini, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Melbourne, Australia & Australian Stuttering Research Centre, The University of Sydney Stuttering onset up to 3 years: a prospective community study
5.20	Lisa Iverach, Ross Menzies, Susan O'Brian, Mark Onslow, Ann Packman, Mark Jones, Susan Block, Michelle Lincoln, Sally Hewat, Elisabeth Harrison & Linda Wilson, Australian Stuttering Research Centre, The University of Sydney Psychopathology in Adults Who Stutter	Laura Miller, Bristol University & Rosemarie Hayhow, North Bristol NHS Trust & University of the West of England, Bristol Identifying trajectories in childhood stuttering
5.35		Miglena Simonska, South-West University, Bulgaria Language abilities in preschool children: a comparative study between early stuttered and normal disfluent children aged 2-6years	